STAR EMPLOYEE

It was July 2012 when Ms. Edna Lewis James started working here at Fort Benning MWR, but her years of civil service add up to more than 45. Today you can find her at the Milton E. Long Library in the Technical Services Office where she has a reputation for great service.

Originally from Tallahassee, Florida, Ms. Edna is thankful for the opportunities she's had to experience civil servant roles around the world as a military spouse, but says she's done putting down roots and has no plans to leave the Columbus area. Her biggest accomplishment is the rearing of her children who share the generational trait of helping others. Her faith is what inspires her to continue to serve. She's almost retired four times now, but she loves continuing to learn and isn't quite ready to leave. We're not complaining about it, either!

Ms. Edna started out at the library's circulation desk, but she does "a little bit of everything" and truly enjoys it! If you ever get the opportunity to meet her, you'll learn right away that she's the true definition of a "people person." When asked what her favorite part of her job was, her answer reflected just that: the people. "I love going above and beyond to help people and help make their day - people never forget how you make them feel."

She says that people often look at her crazy when she declares "I LOVE MY JOB!" She explains, "it doesn't matter how hard the job is, I enjoy what I do - helping people. Making people happy makes me happy." So, the next time you head over to the library to check out a book, pop in for weekly storytime or utilize the printers, be sure to head up to the second floor and say hi to Ms. Edna's smiling face awaiting your visit.

In a typical summer, we celebrate Independence Day a little early on our installation to allow Soldiers and their Families to travel home for the 4th of July holiday.

The annual Independence Celebration stands to celebrate our nation's independence, and to provide everyone a safe environment while being entertained by great musical performances and enjoying military displays and demonstrations, and fun in the sun! The event culminates with the Chattahoochee Valley's largest fireworks show, sponsored by Headquarter Nissan.

Festival-goers can choose from a variety of food options, such as kettle corn, funnel cake, ice cream, southern cuisine, grilled food, Cajun cooking, barbecue and more. Fun for the Families include a rock-climbing pillar, bounce houses and arts & crafts.

This year's Independence Celebration takes place on on June 24 on York Field on Eckel Avenue, in front of the Maneuver Center of Excellence headquarters - McGinnis-Wickam Hall. Stay tuned to benning.armymwr.com for updates as we get closer to the event date.

At Fort Benning, BOSS means Better Opportunities for all Soldiers! Fort Benning has an energetic, innovative and robust BOSS program. Though BOSS was founded in 1989 for the benefit of the more than half of all U.S. Soldiers who are single, these days the program welcomes all Soldiers, all ranks and ages, as well as authorized MWR patrons, including civilians. BOSS members participate in a number of exciting activities, and they benefit from various discounts and free passes to shows and sporting events. Of course, they're well-known in the community, on post and off, for the many hours they devote to volunteering.

The BOSS program is composed of three components: Quality of Life/Well-Being, which addresses issues that influence the morale, living environment or growth and development of Soldiers; Community Service, which includes volunteer projects on post and off; and Recreation and Leisure, which includes trips and events planned and supported by BOSS Soldiers.

BOSS meetings are held every last Wednesday of the month at the Main Post Recreation Center - with free lunch. The Main Post Recreation Center is located on Building 2784, 7611 Sightseeing Road. Contact the Fort Benning BOSS president for more information and sign up to become a BOSS Soldier! BOSS events are sponsored by Boingo (sponsorship does not imply endorsement).
